GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Gen. Frederick C. McLewee and James Brady, the owners of Gold Heels, have subscribed to the Saratoga Special, the great $1,000 subscription event of the Saratoga Association's midsummer calendar, and their accession swells the total number of subscriptions to twenty-two, only one behind last year. That last year's record of twenty-three will be reached and passed the managers of the Saratoga Association are confident, because A. H. & D. H. Morris and John Sanford, two of last year's subscribers with big strings of promising two-year-olds this season have not yet been heard from, and it is confidently expected that they will re-enter the pool. Also subscriptions are looked for from the Clydes of Philadelphia, Henry T. Oxnard and William Easton and Adolph Spreckels. Mr. Oxnard, indeed, has said that he intended to enter. There is ample time. The race will not close until the 10th, and a letter expressing a willingness to enter bearing a postmark of midnight on that date will be certain of acceptance. There are a sufficient number of subscribers already to give the race, with twelve starters, a value of $17,000 in cash, and to make it, as it was last year, the best special for two-year-olds, after the Futurity, in the country. Twelve starters is a conservative prophecy in a race like the special. It is purely a sportsman's affair, and every nominator will make a particular effort to be represented.—Daily America.

The Montana Jockey Club is making great preparations for the coming summer meeting at Butte and Anaconda. A flattering offer has been made to Joseph Murphy to act as presiding judge, and he may possibly accept. The meeting is to begin in June and twelve stake events will be distributed throughout the season, varying from $800 to $1,500.

The following are the weights in the Carter Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward; seven furlongs; to be run for at Aqueduct on Tuesday, April 15:

Winner—Ch. g. by Rey del Sierras—Alice N. Went to post at 2:14. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. El Rey is particularly good at present and under skillful handling came fast through the stretch and finished strongly. Urchin secured a lucky start but was weakly handled and swerved into the bad going at the end. Harry Thatcher finished strongly. Pupil is improving and will do better on a fast track. He works fast but does not try in a race. La Calma went well throughout. Catharine Bravo showed speed but quit badly.

Scratched—30873 Casdale, 110; 30974 Onyx, 110; 30928 Alturas, 110; 30974 Little Gun, 104. Overweights—El Rey, 1 pound; Burdock, 4. El Rey, show, 1 to 3. Urchin, show, 1 to 2. Harry Thatcher, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Briosio—Vivace. Went to post at 2:43. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Irate had clear sailing and, besides being lucky throughout, finished strongly and was easily best. Clarando was off in front and outran in the first quarter and, through over-anxiety, Jackson made his move too soon and his mount tired at the end. Mamie Hildreth went well throughout. Scallywag quit in the stretch. Our Lizzie was poorly handled.

Scratched—30794 El Mido, 105. Overweights—Irate, 2 pounds. Irate, show, 7 to 5. Clarando, show, 1 to 3. Mamie Hildreth, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by Captive—Miss Gentry. Went to post at 3:30. At post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second easily. Impromptu, off very badly, closed an immense gap and caught Dorian tiring right at the end. The latter ran in improving form and forced the pace but went very wide into the stretch and then swerved over to the rail which beat him. Dunblane was practically choked to a standstill and given a bad looking ride. The other two were outclassed.

Went to post at 3:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Lady Meddlesome waited on Sea Lion for the first half and practically cantered for the remainder of the journey. Grand Sachem early resolved himself into the only serious contender, showed greatly improved speed and stamina and is due to win soon. Sea Lion only went five furlongs well. The Gaffer wants a sloppy track. Nilgar was in difficulties early and ran a very bad race. Billy Lyons was not good today. Lady Meddlesome, show, out. Grand Sachem, show, 3 to 5. Sea Lion, show, 4 to 5. Nilgar, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by El Rayo—Fusillade's Last.
Went to post at 4:21. At post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second the same. Horton was lucky throughout but in spite of a seeming lack of strenuous action behind him was forced his utmost to win by a narrow margin. Kickumbob came through next to the rail in bad going but saved ground on the turn and finished strongly. Educate showed her usual speed and unexpected stamina. Water Scratch was practically left and went the longest possible way around throughout. Wyoming ran one of his inexplicably bad races. Bassenzo showed speed but tired badly at the end.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

John Gardner, the former jockey, who arrived in Cincinnati from San Francisco about a week ago to secure treatment for his eyes, has left the hospital after having an operation performed on the right optic. He will remain west until the first of next week, when he goes east in the interest of G. B. Morris, with whom he is now identified. Speaking of Mr. Morris' horses, he said recently: "I consider Old England the best of his three-year-olds. He is a fine colt, and is as speedy as the wind. He will get the money, sure. While Sombrero has beaten everything he has raced against this year, and has shown a liking particularly for the mud, and is a good weight carrier, I do not consider him the equal of Old England."

Word comes from England that Foxhall Keene's four-year-old colt, Olympian is working remarkably well and may be a starter in the Lincolnshire. Mr. Keene, who is at Newmarket, has been watching Olympian at work under the watchful eyes of Felix Leach, the stable's regular trainer, and is said to have expressed the belief that the noted son of Domino has a great year before him.

Superintendent Joseph Reilly of Queens County Jockey Club says there has never been so great a demand for stable room at the Aqueduct track, and that in order to accommodate the horsemen, several new stables will be constructed there before the spring meeting opens on April 15. It is believed that one of the features of the Aqueduct meeting will be the trying out of numerous two-year-olds, as a majority of the stables have entered youngsters in the various events. The improvements, begun at the track last fall, have been completed, so that the public may look for up to date accommodations.

W. C. Whitney's Nasturtium is no longer favorite for the Epsom Derby. He has receded to third choice. Mr. Whitney's other three-year-old, Intruder II., is now regarded as a possible winner, in view of the fact that after standing the effects of his ocean voyage well, he has proceeded to work along with much promise. Trainer John Huggins, who has taken charge of the Whitney stable on the other side, says that he has not begun to subject Nasturtium to a severe course of training because the colt has not yet fully recovered from his recent illness, but that, in his belief, the famous son of Watercress will come around all right in time for the big race.

Water Color and Roehampton, two of the four-year-old nominations for the Metropolitan Handicap, may be bet on with reasonable certainty when the future books begin to quote prices about the great Morris Park Special. Barring accidents, they will be starters. Charles Littlefield, who trains the Watercress colt for J. B. Haggin, and J. G. Follansbee, the owner of Roehampton have both declared that they were satisfied with the weights and would point their horses for the Metropolitan. A great many things may happen to a couple of horses in two months, the length of time that must elapse before the Metropolitan is run, but men who gamble in winter books must take chances to get long prices, and it is safer to support animals whose owners are known to be getting ready for a particular race than to back the candidates of men who keep their plans secret.—Daily America.

Since the success of Halma and The Commoner, sons of Hanover are in great demand for sires. Eastern turfmen are now negotiating for Hanwell, a son of Hanover, and it is said a price of $20,000 has been put on him.

Went to post at 2:03. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sir Kingston was best, showed much the most speed, was never in trouble at any stage and was only cantering at the end. The Messenger was lame when going to the post. Nannie J. ran well.

Impetuous hung on gamely when called on and showed big improvement. So also did Eufala. The latter showed a good turn of speed, but tired.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Jena quickly drew away from the others in the run home and won easily up. Star Cotton was used up making the early pace. Beana got caught in a jam at the first turn and fell.

Went to post at 4:09. At post 19 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Hucena, under a hard drive, caught Latch String on the last turn and was drawing away at the end. Latch String showed early speed, but tired in the run home and had to do her best to save second place. Jim Scanlan, outrun in the early part, came fast in the last quarter. The long delay at the post ruined Dr. Worth's chances. Claris stopped almost to a walk in the last furlong.
